

Monitoring the European Central Bank Subscription Form

Launched in 1998, Monitoring the European Central Bank (MECB) brings together a rotating group of economists internationally known for their work on macroeconomics and monetary policy. MECB aims to monitor the European economy and the work of the ECB, and presents its analyses to the broader public including the European Parliament and the media. A Monitoring the European Central Bank Report is published in the spring each year, complemented by an Update a few months later.

SUBSCRIBING TO THE MECB SERIES:

The annual subscription rate for 2002 is £30. Payment is due annually and in advance and invoices are sent out in November of the previous year (e.g. invoices for 2003 will be mailed in November 2002).

YES! I would like to begin an annual subscription to the MECB series.

BUYING SINGLE COPIES:

Subscribers to the MECB series may purchase previous reports in the series for just £15. If you are not subscribing, then single copies of MECB1, MECB2 or MECB3 are available for £30 (£20 for concessions) each. Please send me:

- Monitoring the European Central Bank 3: 'Defining a Macroeconomic Framework for the Euro Area' and MECB Update: September 2001
- Monitoring the European Central Bank 2: 'One Money, Many Countries' and MECB Update: June 2000
